

DETAILED ACTION
EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with MARK W. SINCELL on 11/28/2011.

The application has been amended as follows:

1. (Currently amended) A method for partitioning code space in a communication system, comprising the step of:

dividing a code space into at least two subspaces, where codes in the first subspace are assigned to at least one user for a voice communication session until the voice communication session of said at least one user is complete and where all of the codes in the second subspace are assigned to each of a plurality of users for data communication on a time-shared basis so that each of the plurality of users can use all of the codes in the second subspace ~~at~~ for a same selected time interval.

8. (Currently amended) A method for partitioning code space in a communication system, comprising the steps of:

dividing a code space into at least two subspaces, where codes in the first subspace are assigned to at least one user for a voice communication session until the voice communication session of said at least one user is complete and where all of the codes in the second subspace are assigned to each of a plurality of users on a timeshare basis for data communication so that each of the plurality of users can use all of the codes in the second subspace ~~at~~ for a same selected time interval.

11. (Currently amended) The method of claim ~~nine~~ 9, wherein a minimum number of codes are provided to the second subspace.
